Legal Services Support Team – 29 Palms, CA

At a Special Court-Martial at Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center Twentynine Palms, California, Sergeant Johzel J. Thomas was convicted by a military judge alone for wrongfully violating a lawful order by wrongfully providing alcohol to a person under the age of 21, for being found in an unauthorized absence status for failing to go to his appointed place of duty, for violating a lawful general regulation by fraternizing with a Lance Corporal, and for wrongfully having sexual intercourse with a woman, not his wife. The military judge sentenced the accused to 60 days restriction and reduction to E-3.
