

Summarized Report of Results of Trial
8 February - 12 February 2016

Complex Trial Team

There were no cases disposed of at CTT for the week for 8 February - 12 February 2016.

Legal Services Support Team - 29 Palms, CA

At a Special Court-Martial at 29 Palms, California, Lance Corporal J. P. Cox was convicted by military judge alone of false official statement and indecent language. The military judge sentenced the accused to 3 months confinement, forfeiture of $900 per month for 3 months, and reduction to E-2. The pre-trial agreement had no effect on the sentence.

At a Special Court-Martial at 29 Palms, California, Staff Sergeant B. A. Dease was convicted by military judge alone of dereliction of duty, negligent discharge of a weapon, and waste of property. The military judge recommended consideration of disapproval of findings of guilty. The pre-trial agreement had no effect on the sentence.

Legal Services Support Team - Miramar

At a Special Court-Martial at San Diego, California, Private First Class T. M. Hamrick was convicted by military judge of failure to obey a lawful order of a noncommissioned officer, wrongful use of a controlled substance, and wrongful possession of a controlled substance. The military judge sentenced the accused to 87 days confinement, reduction to E-1, and a bad-conduct discharge. Pursuant to the pre-trial agreement, the convening authority agreed to disapprove the discharge.

At a Special Court-Martial at San Diego, California, Staff Sergeant D. Arredondo was convicted by a panel of officer and enlisted members of violations of a lawful general order and violation of a lawful order. The members sentenced the accused to reduction to E-3.

Legal Services Support Team - Camp Pendleton

At a Special Court-Martial at Camp Pendleton, California, Private First Class E. A. Perez was convicted by military judge alone of unauthorized absence. The military judge sentenced the accused to 92 days confinement, forfeiture of $1,000 per month for 3 months, reduction to E-1, and a bad-conduct discharge. Pursuant to the pre-trial agreement, the convening authority agreed to suspend all confinement in excess of 60 days.

At a Special Court-Martial at Camp Pendleton, California, Private First Class J. A. Ebey was convicted by military judge alone of violation of a lawful general order, wrongful possession of a controlled substance, and wrongful use of a controlled substance. The military judge sentenced the accused to 75 days confinement, total forfeitures, reduction to E-1, and a bad-conduct discharge. The pre-trial agreement had no effect on the sentence.